HUGHES IS MAKING CROSS-ROADS STOPS THROUGHOUT STATE

Candidate Visits 14 Places To-Day, but Speaks in Only

By Samuel M. Williams.

Most of the day there was a drig.

sling rain, which caused Dr. Alexed ander to forbid the candidate to make this Ringhamton speech, but devoted cage outdoor speeches. Ralph Thomas, all his remarks to the need for Replayment to the candidate to make the speech speech but devoted cage.

to keep on the go day nod pight to meet and talk to as many people as pismble. Harring his weating count chords, his raw-borner physique as standing the strain without ill.

never sow a real live Presidential among the station crowds, because the men hous to be at work, but women and children were on hand in prefusion despite the rain.

Following the general lines laid down in his Suratinga specificant inght. Mr. Hughes harmonred away to-day at President Wilson, without Correspondent of The mentioning him by name, for the railroad eight-hour bid, the Mexican of fairs and foreign policy. He came Touring rural regions like a candidate out strong for protective tariff. Local candidates through New York State to at the railway station and addressed for Wilson and hoped that all their men would do likewise. Republican

BONWIT TELLER & CO.

The Specialty Shop of Originations

FIRTH AVENUE AT 38TH STREET

A Distinct Note of the "Different" in SCHOOL, COLLEGE and FORMAL APPAREL becoming to youth and youthful figures.

Misses' Tailleur Suits

29.50 · 250.00

of Bonwit Teller suits for misses of 14 to 18-so that each individual young woman may find a model expressive of her particular

SIMPLE TAILLEURS for those whose

LOUNGE SUITS that carry the more

BE-FURRED SUITS emphasizing many novel treatments in Monk, Capelet, Clache and Crushed Collars—wing, gauntlet and muff cuffs—deep borders and footings of the fashionable furs.

COSTUME SUITS of a more formal design developed in cloth and velvet, which interpret the latest fashion decisions of Lanvin, Jenny, Cheruit, Premet, and other Paris couturieres of

Misses' Daytime COATS

& Evening MANTEAUX

Fashions for misses of 14 to 18 in daytime Coats and evening Wraps and Mantles that strike a sincerely original note in the creation of outer garments for the younger set. Daytime Coats developed in velour, Bolivia, Patagonia, tweed, "Knit Moor" cloth and wool jersey. Evening Coats of chiffon velvet in combination with

Misses' DAY FROCKS

and EVENING GOWNS

Unusual trotteur and walking frocks of serge, satin, velvet and wool jersey. Afternoon frocks of Georgette crepe and sinuous silks with all anner of unique features evidenced by Cheval

Collars, square medieval necks, round Lembardian necks, great round collars of white broadcloth, draped collars, quaint sleeve and cuff effects, Russian and Chinese motifs, basque and Puritan hodices; bead, fur and embroidery garniture. Evening frocks for the debutante of rich tracades and motal broches, introducing the letest choustes of lechice. 18,30 to 173.00

29.50 to 250.00

insouciante spirit of the college campus.

preference is the strictly "tailor-made"

type and personality.

A most unusual latitude governs the styling

"Jeunes Filles" & "Flappers"

Original style-themes for the younger set that depart radically from the hackneyed types. Modes that are marked by a proper and unobtrusive, demure simplicity and that incorporate particular features especially

"FLAPPER" APPAREL

Originated by and exclusive with Bonwit Teller & Co.

For the hard-to-fit girl of 12 to 16

Entirely distinctive and different types in suits, coats and frocks not to be found outside of this shop. Specially designed for girls of 12 to 16 years of age who have outgrown their years yet must be appareled in

"Flapper" Tailleur Suits

Norfolk Suits, checks and gabardines 20.00 Plain tailored Velour Suits ...... 25.00

Fur trimmed Broadcloth & Velour Suits 27.50

Raccoon Collar Velour Suits....... 37.50 Fur trimmed Velvet Suits ......... 42.50

"Flapper" Frocks

FOR SCHOOL AND FORMAL WEAR

Quaint little serge frocks have a round collar at the neck, other frocks are of serge combined with plaid silks, still other frocks of serge have tunic skirts with Lanvin stitchery. Many frocks have bead trimming and colored yarn embroideries.

Basque cape and surplice fashions are also in vogue. Frocks with vests of crepe de chine and coat dresses with sleeves and blouses of striped challis. Straight line plaited types have a gar-

Than When She Gave Away Fortunes

Eccentric Woman Who Has Giren Away Fortunes Is Barricaded in Her Home and Denies Herself to All Visitors.

By Nixola Greeley-Smith.

New Haven has solved its greatest ily the kitchen

the people would bob their untrellas and cheer while the local band played "America."

It was campaigning of the most wasteful and wearing kind for a presidential candidate. Some of the would not ist him make an outdoor towns were smaller than even Bryan laborers or capitalists. There is something in standing for a principle. The people will back that "

Leaving Binghamton he went to in Chicago became involved in litigation, and in 1998 she dropped utterly out of sight. News of her disappear would not ist him make an outdoor after was made public by the Rev. Newell Dwight Hills of Plymouth.

chapel and a $20,000 altar to the Ca- Wallace's paster in Chicago. She was sometimes a little fruit. She likes to thedral of St. John the Divine, in New | seen last on a Brooklyn troiley car, dine out, and never refuses an invitaost money. Her extensive properties, which had carned for her the title of One of her cronies is Mrs. Emery, carly len years now since never dream of going to see Mrs.

"No, indeed, she's not poor:" said most of wallace except by special invitation. Elijah Crosson, formerly of Chapmarvel paqua, N. Y. and a friend and associate of Horace Greeley. "I attended action, to a lot of business for Mrs. Wallace The open the door for any one who knocks, even if she knows who it is. She has grieved greatly in the last few days because an automobile ran over her dog Narcisso. And I have noticed that since the New Haven papers found out who she is and printed that she was the friend of Hetty Green and Susan B. Anthony and Frances Willard, she has not lighted the light which used to burn ber place and the place and the place next it and lighted the light which used to burn ber place and the place next it and lighted the light which used to burn ber place and the place next it and lighted the light which used to burn ber place and the place next it and lighted the light which used to burn ber place and the place next it and lighted the light which used to burn ber place and the place next it and lighted the light which used to burn be place and the place next it and

A Complexion to clear Eczema to hoo!-

If it is but a slight irregularity of the phin, a single application may be sufficient. If a more stubborn trouble, duly improve-ment may be seen.

ALE AND STOUT DRINKERS ARE PROVERBIALLY

ENT LIFE.

Mrs. Wallace, 'Diamond Queen of Chicago,' STANDARD OIL RISE Is Happier as 'Hermit of Savin Rock' MAKESITS FOUNDER FIRST BILLIONAIRE

> Des Holdings Since Company Dissolved.

SUBSIDIARIES FLOURISH.

Fractional Values of Minor Concerns Make Share in Parent Company Worth $2,014

HOW STANDARD OIL'S DISSOLUTION ORDER.

Standard Off of N. J .... $475 $562 $562 Subsidiaries en bloc.....

rains of Mr. Hockefeller's boldings; Par ,value of John D Hockefeller's 247,692 shares Value at the time of dissolution, at $675 a share ... calue to-day, metuding substittaries, at increase to value of his holdings since dissolution world's first billionaire. When the Supreme Court of the Inited States May 18, 1911, ordered the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey to dissolve, the stock of that rporation, which included thirtythree other minor companies, sold at Yesterday Standard Oil of subsidiaries for four years by that court decree, sold at $547 a share.

Taken together with one share each of the thirty-three companies from which it was separated a collection of shares representing one share of "I have had tea with Mrs. Wallace and that she has more money than at $2.014. Not only has the parent out she has gotten out her best silver we have. She's not poor." company, out off from its children. reached a value approaching that of the whole family four years ago, but most of the children has prospered marvellously since the court took and Frances Willard, she has not lighted the light which used to burn all night in her little kitchen and told the neighbors that 'all was well with her."

HERMIT'S LATER LIFE LIKE HERMIT'S LATER LIFE LIKE HETTY GREEN'S.

Testimony of other neighbors and friends of Mrs. Wallace, none of whom guessed her identity till it was discovered by a New Haven reporter, establishes a remarkable resemblance between her later days and the clossing years of her friend. Hetty Green.

Mrs. Wallace lives on a pint bottle.

This impression of Mrs. Wallace to later days and the clossing years of her friend. Hetty Green.

This impression of Mrs. Wallace to later days and the clossing years of her friend. Hetty Green.

This impression of Mrs. Wallace trol over the acts of these subsidiary companies by virtue of its measure contradicts the general converties closeness was told by Mrs. Tamberlyn.

"Ever since I saved her house from the woodland and won't take a penny for live is and always dressed in the latest stock.

And the subsidiary companies by virtue of its measure contradicts the general convertible and a woodland beyond.

"An interesting story which in some measure contradicts the general convertible over the acts of these subsidiary companies by virtue of its measure contradicts the general convertible of the friend the place and the place next it and a woodland beyond.

An interesting story which in some measure contradicts the general convertible of the friend and prohibited from declaring of paying any dividends to the standard oil Company of New Jersey and from permitting the latter company to vote any stock in or to exercise any contradicts the place next it and a woodland beyond.

The troit direction or supervision of grands and the close the place over the acts of these subsidiary companies by virtue of its housing of their stock.

And the subsidiary companies are close to the service of the stock.

And the subsidiary companies are close to the service of the stock.

And the subsidiary companies are close to the serv This impression of Mrs. Wallace trol over said companies by virtue This impression of Mrs. Wallace was confirmed by another neighbor who said: "You'd say she was preity gody if you were to meet her. This year she has the latest sport clothes, half a dozen sweaters of different colors and she always wears beautiful ostrich feathers and flowers in her hats. She gets them all in New Haven, and dresses up to go to the grocery for a lost of bread as if she were going to the theatre. defendant corporations that are par-

FINDS HAPPINESS IN HER PRES. ties to the cambination. "The Standard Oil group and its She reads all day or digs her gar, members are enjoined from con-ten, which has many beautiful flow, tinuing or carrying into effect the es, which she tends herself. The dust combination sujudged illegal hersely in her house, except in the kitchen, which she occupies is a foot thick. But she loves the garden and cares for it, and there are some birds that come and cat out of her hand. She told me this morning, when she saw what the papers said about her, that she disappeared because she wanted to be alone."

Before she barricaded herself in her.

Combination sijudged illegal hersely and from entering into or performing any like combination or consideration of which is, or will be to restrain commerce in petroleum or its product among the States, or in the Perfitations, or with foreign nations, or to prolong the unitarity monopoly of such commerce obtained and possessed by the combination adjudged illegal hereby Before she barricaded herself in her defendants in viciation of the Sher-home. Mrs. Wallace was quoted by a New Haven newspaper as saying that she is happier in her present life than when she was known as the Diamond Queen, and that the secret of a long life is not to worry.

detendants in viciation of the Sherman iaw.

The various companies are allowed to continue in combination for six months in order to give them the long life is not to worry.

Mr. Hockefeller's S. O. steek alone, without holdings in railroad and bank shares and in National, State and municipal bonds, including $10,000,000 of the 1915 Angto-French loan, stands him in $195.854.016.44, and in addition to this he is understood to own a large part of the stock of the United States Sire! Corporation, Financial authorities have no hesitation in saying that Standard Olf's latest rise has put him easily into the billionare class.

It is estimated that the total bens.

into the bilitenare class.

It is estimated that the total benefactions of the Rockefellers father and sen, amount to about $100,000,000, including $60,000,000 to the General Education Beard, $20,000,000 to the University of Chicago, $10,000,000 to the Rockefeller Institute, $8,000,000 to Rush Medical College and $10,000,000 distributed by the Rockefeller Foundation.

BOYCOTT ON CARS COSTS

much rating to do that their nation of the American of the Americanted Association of Pirent and Electric Harles are built often run up to $72 and day Mr. Pitagerald's favorito and almost $1,000 for automobile resince July 17, while the transfer and colored hody. The organizers have had an allowed the transfer and the tran

The organizare are understand to have had a special rate with a Wes Forty first Street renting agency of about $2.10 an hour. William men have been arped Pitegerald, general organizer, and his assistants are said to have had se

Autumn Apparel for Misses Serge and Silk Fall Frocks Carrying to a graceful

Tomorrow, Saturday

one the straight-line fashion tendency - the new high-waisted Empire and Directoire styles particularly appropriate for young ladies. Serges, serges-and-satins, serges with crepe de chine yokes, collars and sleeves.

Large Saturday selec-charmense and satin frocks for misses.

Misses' Coats $20

Scores of the big, mannish models, in the soft finished woolens-mustards, blues, browns, greens

Tweeds in plaids and the newer Shetland patterns great, roomy coats, filled with style from collar

No Charge for Alterations.

Nineteen West 34th Street

Made in Norfolk and pinch-back models of Scotch tweed, fancy mixtures $5.95

On any purchase to $10 we offer special terms of '1 Down and '1 a Week

Two of Them.

NURSING HIS VOICE OF THE LA

Renews Attack on Wilson on Eight-Hour Law-Gets Jolt at Binghamton.

stay on a milk train schedule. He stopped at fourteen places for railway station exhibitions and made two talks in halfs. The largest town was Binghamton, where he was met by a crowd halfs. It is a spellbinding for him. Mr. Hughes, standing on the rear platform of his car, would wave his hand to the crowds and in husky voice cay good morning or some similar greeting, and morning or some similar greeting, and and strict retire deserted looking

tion, and in 1908 she dropped utterly FOR TEN YEARS THE HERMIT Road, on which the hermit's cottage looks down. Mrs. Emory is eighty-three, a year older than Mrs. Wallace like one," Mrs. Emory said yesterday.

"She doesn't spend much for food, any use for old men, but that young men were very nice, and that if she young husband. We used to ask Mrs.

"She's as spry as a girl and dresses

"The Diamond Queen."

OF SAVIN ROCK.

little old lady bought a tumble-down bines a cheap amusement resort, baseball park. The old lady lived "She says you've got to wear good alone save for the society of a Pom- clothes if you want to catch the men. eranian called Narcisso. Neighbors That's what she told me," interrupted soon discovered that while the cot- Miss Lily Emory, the octogenarian's tage was furnished lavishly with the good looking daughter. "I said to pictures, bronzes and old mahogany Mrs. Wallace that I was surprised which betokened a splendid past, Mrs. that she was still thinking about men Wallace lived entirely in the kitchen, at her age. And she tossed her head even sleeping there on a little cot, and laughed and said she didn't have as ever crossed the threshold of that strange home in which the dust and ever married again she would take a disturbed. This neighbor is Mrs. John Wallace over here for Christmas and Tamberlyn, who saved Mrs. Wellace's Thanksgiving. She always came, and home from fire a few years age, and when she was sick we'd send her over by that act carned the old lady's a tray. But she never asked us to a

and she has gotten out her best silver | we have. and cut glass for me," Mrs. Tamber- SHE HAS LOTS OF THOSE DIAlyn said yesterday. "But I would

Mrs. Wallace lives on a pint bottle

A Pimple to dispose of— A Rash to banish—with its intense, ever-active healing power, to do the work quickly and well.

AT ALL DRUGGISTS.

niture of wool fringe. Afternoon frocks are executed in dainty silk and crepe materials, each frock with a fascination of its own. "Flapper" Coats FOR SCHOOL AND DRESS OCCASIONS

Specialized styles made in velour and broadcloth, in the belt and broad belt models, ripple cape styles, long waisted types and shadow stitched

25.00 to 65.00

Fur trimmed Broadcloth Coats...... 25.00 Tailored Velour Coats ...... 27.50 29.50 Pur trim'd Valour Coats #2.50 #5,00 #9.50